

Reference for InvestBay

Dated on December 15, 2022

We were delighted to welcome Investbay into our Tatum Blockchain Accelerator powered by StartupYard. We are fully committed to using our business expertise and network to help the Investbay founders navigate the hurdles of building a successful company from scratch.

The Investbay team combines a unique set of skilled and experienced founders with an ambitious, exciting and innovative business model. They bring genuinely new and interesting value propositions for their clients, all supported by secure and established technology platforms including blockchain. We very much look forward to co-operating closely with them and to helping Investbay with their upcoming market entry.
